Project for the construction of pavilions for countries participating at international EXPO 2015

Milan, July 2013 - The WTC Milan in cooperation with the leading Italian property developer Brioschi Sviluppo Immobiliare can provide a full package of services and activities for the construction of pavilions for countries participating at international EXPO 2015 in Milan.

The services are divided in different phases and range from the concept and preliminary design development to the identification and selection of engineering and architectural firms, partners and suppliers, organization of tenders, preparation of documents and contracts and construction management. All the activities would also be supported by the internal legal and administrative departments of Brioschi.

Brioschi Sviluppo Immobiliare's core business is to design and construct integrated projects in the Milan area (i.e. Milanofiori Nord urban district). Brioschi is also specialized in the construction and management of structures for events and exhibitions (Mediolanum Forum, Teatro della Luna, Palazzo de Ghiaccio, Frigoriferi Milanesi, etc.).
